Gustav E. Kissel Sent Pencil for

Adolph Segal's Watch Chain.

In the government's suit for the dissolution of the American Sugar Refining Company and other defendants, alleged in an illegal combination, Assistant District Attorney Knapp yesterday introduced in evidence a number of letters sent by the late Gustav E. Kissel to John E. Parsons, Adolph Segal and H. O. Havemeyer, relating to the $1,250,000 loan made by the sugar refining company, which for years resulted in the closing of the Philadelphia refinery of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company.

One of the letters introduced was the following, under date of December 23, 1906:

My Dear Segal: I send you this little pencil to enable you to write checks at all times of the day and night, which you can do and hang it on your watch chain. With it at the same time accept my best wishes for good Christmas and the best of New Years. May you succeed in making the Bellmore-Stratford look like thirty castles, make sugar cane grow in North Broad street, and smash the United States Steel Trust with small breeches, is the wish of yours truly,

GUSTAV E. KISSEL

The Bellmore-Stratford was the apartment house for the erection of which the Champion Construction Company obtained the $1,250,000 loan, for which it gave the American Sugar Refining Company, as security, 26,000 shares of the stock of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company.
